Broker-Salesperson

Many real estate brokers elect to work for other brokers in a capacity similar to the relationship existing between a licensed real estate salesperson and an employing broker.

However, such broker-salespersons are still licensed by the Department of Real Estate (DRE) as real estate brokers. Only by written agreement with another broker are they acting as broker-salespersons. Section 2726 of the Commissioner's Regulations requires that "... every real estate broker shall have a written agreement with each of his salesmen, whether licensed as a salesman or as a broker under a broker-salesman arrangement."

Even though a broker may act as a broker-salesperson in a relationship with another broker, for Department of Real Estate licensing and record-keeping purposes the licensee is still a broker. This means that a broker-salesperson should still communicate with DRE using only appropriate broker forms and applications.

When using the proper broker forms no reference should be made to the name (or fictitious name) of the broker for whom the broker-salesperson works. That type of information is irrelevant as there is no reference in the DRE records that such a working relationship exists. It is also imperative that a broker-salesperson speak for himself or herself, meaning that any requests for record changes be made by the broker-salesperson and not by anyone else on his or her behalf.

A broker-salesperson should never use salesperson forms or applications when renewing or making changes to a broker record. Doing so will cause delays in processing whatever is requested. Remember — a broker is always a broker regardless of any working relationship that may exist with another broker.

Instructions

Check the appropriate "change" box(es) on page 1 and complete all information requested on the application.

Change of Personal Name — Enter full new name (do not refer to any other broker, DBA or company name). Attach verification of name change (i.e., legible copy of drivers license, marriage certificate, court order, etc.). Sign line #12 with your new name. If you have a DBA on record, a Fictitious Business Name Statement must be refiled with your new name.

Mailing Address — The mailing address (post office box, residence or business address) is used to mail correspondence to you.

Non-California Residents — If residing outside the State of California, a notarized Consent To Service Of Process (RE 234) is also required, if not already on file. If not maintaining an office in California, submit an Out-of-State Broker Acknowledgment (RE 235).

Main Office Address — Enter the new primary business location. The main office address must be a California address. If a street address is unavailable, indicate the physical location (i.e., the nearest intersection and the distance to it). If you are no longer working in real estate for which a California license is required, enter "no business address" on line #6. No license will be issued unless requested.

Fictitious Business Name — Do not list your broker's DBA, if you are working as a broker-salesperson.

To add a DBA to your broker license, enter the name exactly as it appears on the Fictitious Business Name Statement (FBNS) as filed with the County Clerk. The DBA must be filed in the county of your main office address. Submit a copy of the FBNS with the "filed stamp" from the County Clerk's office.

- Prior to filing your fictitious business name statement with the county, you may wish to contact a local DRE district office, or check our Web site (www.dre.ca.gov) to determine if the name is already in use by another broker.
- The broker licensee's name must appear as a registrant on the FBNS. Refer to Section 2731 of the Commissioner's Regulations for restrictions.
- Proof of Publication is not acceptable, unless it bears the County Clerk's "filed stamp."
- Photocopies are acceptable, if they are clear and legible.

To cancel a DBA, complete the entire application. Check the cancel box on line #11A and list the DBA you wish to cancel.
